

It's All Over But The Shouting--Hooray!

Smart playing won Canyon High School its second state basketball championship Saturday in Austin's Gregory Gym.

The Eagles edged Lancaster's Tigers, 52-51, in an overtime period to place a second silver basketball in their trophy case to join the trophy won in 1950.

Bobby Evans, playmaker turned rebounder, scored the only point of the three-minute overtime period with 1:45 remaining when he canned a free throw.

Little Jim Whinnery's quick thinking on the court and instructions from coach Allen Simpson were prime factors in the victory.

In the fading seconds of the overtime stanza, Lancaster applied an aggressive fullcourt press. The Eagles were taken back by the sudden move and it appeared they wouldn't be able to get the ball across the half-court line in the allotted 10 seconds.

As the 10 seconds faded, Whinnery charged the official and called for a time out.

Forces were regrouped on the bench and the ball was moved into the Eagles' offensive end. Donald Breitling was fouled with four seconds remaining by husky Tommy Horton.

Simpson called for his four other players to drop back to halfcourt to halt an attempted fast break.

Breitling's missed free throw fell into the waiting hands of Lancaster's Greg Beesley. With Canyon's players in defensive positions at halfcourt, he was unable to do anything but try a shot from that point. It fell feet short.

The factors Simpson used in building his champions--rebounding and defense--paid off, but the Lancaster contest was far from Canyon's best shooting show.

Despite the fact the Eagles took their usual good shots from within a 15-foot radius of the bucket, only 20 of 55 attempts fell true. Lancaster's 19 of 43 attempts for a .391 percentage bettered Canyon's .364 mark.

The Eagles forced Lancaster to fire from afar and defeated the taller Tigers in the rebounding department, 43-36.

Evans, who at 5-9 was one of the shortest players on the floor, matched the 6-4 Horton in rebounds for the game with 10.

It was Whinnery who started the show rolling in the first quarter for the Eagles. Normally a feeder and defender, he scored nine points before missing a shot.

During the first seven minutes of the opening quarter Jim canned three field goals and a trio of free throws for his points. Canyon held an 11-6 advantage after his opening outburst.

Horton scored his third consecutive bucket with 6:37 remaining in the second quarter to knot the score at 12-12. He hit a follow shot less than a minute later to send his team two points in front.

Quick buckets by Jim McCoy and Larry Kunz gave Lancaster an 18-12 advantage.

Canyon matched the Tigers in scoring for the remainder of the quarter and Evans dropped in one from nearly halfcourt as the halftime buzzer sounded to make it 27-22.

Simpson's Eagles exploded in the third quarter and Lancaster's long-range shooting cooled. The Tigers scored eight of their 12 field goals in the first half from outside 15 feet. Eddie Poole scored on a fast break with 3:24 remaining in the third quarter to send the Eagles into a 31-30 lead. The advantage changed hands three times before Skipper Moore tallied with 12 seconds left in the period to give Canyon a 37-36 margin.

regulation clock gave the Tigers a 48-42 lead. That's where Lancaster made a mistake.

The Tigers' delay game backfired because of the aggressive Canyon defense. Whinnery rifled home jump shots at 3:29 and 3:06 to make it 48-46. With 22 seconds showing on the clock, Moore was fouled by Beesley. Both shots were good to make it 51-50 in Canyon's favor.

Canyon was forced to apply its tough defense as a two-pointer would mean defeat. (See EAGLES, Page 10)

Red Carpet Hello For Champions

Canyon rolled out the red carpet for its Eagles Sunday night as the state AA champions returned home from Austin.

About 500 people turned out to whoop it up as the second state tournament trophy in 14 years was placed fondly in the Eagle trophy case.

It was the first official function of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce Red Carpet Committee headed by Jerry LaGrone.

The welcome home party was held at Canyon High School Gymnasium. The group heard a welcoming speech by Mayor Delbert Lowes, himself an all-time Canyon basketball great.

Mayor Lowes played the Eagles in 1924 and 1925 and one of those years the team copped

TIC Chief To Address City Clubs

A joint luncheon for all Canyon civic clubs will be today (Thursday) in the West Side Cafeteria on the WTSU campus.

Harry W. Clark, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission, will be guest speaker at the luncheon which begins at 12 o'clock noon.

Clark, nationally-known industrial developer, will be the guest of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. The industrial committee of the chamber headed by H. R. King and Troy Martin arranged the luncheon and speaker.

Clark, who has held his position in the TIC for two years, will discuss various industries which are available for Texas towns and cities.

He has been active in industrial work since 1938, having served in several capacities in Mississippi and North Carolina before coming to Texas.

Recognition of his work in the industrial development field is indicated by his service as president of the Southern Industrial Development Council in 1954 and as president of the American Industrial Development Council in 1957-58. In 1962 the AIDC awarded him a "fellow", one of the first three ever given to its members for outstanding distinctions in the industrial field.

Clark is the only one in the South to receive this honor. He is currently president of the Southern Association of State Planning and Development Agencies, and he is also a member of the executive committee of the National Association of State Planning and Development Agencies.

Clark was one of the founders of the Texas Industrial Development Council and in 1961 was chairman of the Dallas Area Industrial Development Association. Immediately prior to coming to Texas, he was vice president of the Fantus Area Research, Inc., a part of the Fantus organization which specialized in finding plant locations for industries.

The luncheon is open to the public and admission will be $1.50.

Who's Superstitious?

A Friday the 13th is no time to take unnecessary chances according to Mrs. Betty Rice of Canyon, a senior at West Texas State University. Salt over the shoulder, avoidance of black cats, step ladders and other such possible hexes should be the order of the day for THAT day--which is tomorrow.

Yarborough Sets Visit Saturday

Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, Texas' Democratic member of the U. S. Senate, is scheduled to be in Canyon Saturday for a coffee session and get-together.

The meeting will be at the Trail Motor Hotel from 10:15 a.m. to 10:45 a.m.

Sen. Yarborough's visit here will be in the course of a campaign swing through the area.

Youth Charged In Auto Death

A broadside collision between two automobiles in the 11th St. and 5th Ave. intersection last week claimed the life of Joyce Paulette Sullivan, 20, a West Texas State University student, and injured two other persons.

The accident occurred at 10:10 p.m. Friday. Miss Sullivan died in Neblett Hospital here early Saturday morning.

Injured in the crash were Rita Joy Freeman, 16, of 1203 9th Ave., and Dick Cloyce Dickerson, 18, of Rte. 2, Box 138, Tulla. Miss Freeman, a junior at Canyon High School, was a passenger in the car driven by Miss Sullivan. Dickerson, employee of a Tulla Grain Elevator, was alone in the other car.

Canyon School Needs Recited

A visiting team of education experts this week had high praise for the Canyon public school plant, faculty and students--but also pointed out some existing or impending challenges which must be met if the system is to serve the needs of a growing community.

"You are moving away from the small-school pattern... some day you are going to be in the triple-A class," Dr. Berlie Fallon, chairman of the inspecting team, told some 200 teachers and parents who met Tuesday night in Canyon High School auditorium to hear a summary report.

Dr. Fallon, a member of the Texas Tech education department, will edit and analyze in detail the findings of the visiting committee and present a written report to school administrators here in a couple of weeks. Together with a self-study report recently completed by the Canyon schools faculty, the document will be in effect a blueprint to guide local educators in updating and enriching the teaching program.

Dr. Fallon was introduced by Huelyn W. Laycock, superintendent of Canyon schools, who complimented the Lubbock educator on the qualifications and diligence of members of the visiting committee which spent Monday and Tuesday in surveying facilities here.

Discussing present and future challenges to the Canyon program, Dr. Fallon noted that "you are a growing community, and I see no reason why this growth should not continue in the foreseeable future."

As a result, he said, educators should begin now to plan for additional classrooms, playgrounds, and other facilities. (See CANYON, Page 10)

Ruckus Heralds WT Religious Speaker

BY TROY MARTIN

One of the most controversial figures in the field of modern theology will appear on the West Texas State University campus next week as principal speaker for Religious Emphasis Week. He is Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre.

Circulars Of Protest On Campus

Circulars protesting the appearance of Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre were distributed on West Texas State University campus Monday night.

Ferre, a highly controversial theologian, is scheduled to appear here during religious emphasis week next week.

The circular urged readers to telephone WT President James P. Cornette and protest the appearance. "Cancel Ferre today!" was the general theme.

Dr. Paige Carruth, associate dean of men, said the circulars were distributed while the annual military ball was in progress at the student union building.

"It would have to be a real crackpot who did that," said Dr. Cornette.

Dr. Carruth appeared unruffled by the circulars. He said his primary concern was littering of the campus with the discarded paper.

Carruth said two men were apprehended by campus security police in connection with the circulars. Both said they were from Amarillo and had been distributing the circulars in protest.

"I told them they should take their protest to Dr. Cornette, that they were littering the campus," Carruth said.

The men were not detained.

Calendars Still On Sale Here

A limited number of birthday calendars are still available from the Canyon High School Band Parents Association.

To order extra calendars contact Lee Boyd Montgomery, band director, at OL 5-2264 or 402 Holman Lane in Canyon.

Band students will be selling ham sandwiches at Taylor and Sons Foods Saturday, March 14, to raise money for a trip to Enid, Oklahoma later in the spring. The sandwiches will sell for 10 cents a piece, and will be on sale all day Saturday.

Abbott Professor of Christian Theology at Andover-Newton Theological School, Newton Centre, Mass.

He was invited to the campus by Dr. James P. Cornette.

Dr. Ferre's stand on the virgin birth of Christ, as well as occasional involvement in politics, has kept him under fire for the better part of the past 15 years.

His stand on certain basic theological precepts have been published in the 10 books which he has authored during the past several years.

His political alignment is more vague. His name has been linked in an uncompromising way to a half-dozen groups or undertakings which might be construed to be political in nature.

Canyon News Publisher Troy Martin has forwarded the list to Dr. Ferre and asked for an interview on the subject when the speaker arrives in Canyon.

Dr. Ferre has drawn fire because of his conjecture about the virgin birth of Christ.

Says Ferre in his book, "The Christian Understanding of God":

"Reference to the Virgin Birth is not found in Paul's letters, the earliest writings we have. It is not found in Mark, the original Gospel. It is not found in the various epistles of the New Testament. It is not found in the Johannine tradition. As a matter of fact, the reference in John to the claim of the Jews to the effect that they were not born in adultery could give external credence to the claim." (See RUCKUS, Page 10)

Wayland Prexy View On Ferre

In answer to a Canyon News request this week Dr. Roy McClung, president of Wayland College, Plainview, was outspoken on his view of the teachings of Nels F. S. Ferre, who will be religious emphasis week speaker at West Texas State University next week.

This is the text of what Dr.

McClung had to say on the matter:

"I have thought a great deal about the effort you are making in presenting the whole truth to the young people in West Texas State University and the thinking people in your area regarding the coming of the one who is to lecture at the University, Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre.

"Dr. Ferre has long been a controversial name and figure in the theological world from the point of view of the conservative and Bible-centered theologians of the nation. He has written profusely. His books have been quite widely distributed because of the fact that he writes with an interesting literary style and lucid and stimulating thought content.

"The problem is that he early embraced the position of 'higher criticism' in biblical scholarship. He has taken the ultra-liberal view of the Scri-

New Red Cross Chiefs Named

Re-organization of the Randall County Red Cross chapter began last week with the appointment of new officers to the official board.

Jerry LaGrone will head the local committee with Bill Davis serving as vice chairman.

Mrs. George Ritter has been named secretary, and Levi Cole will serve as treasurer. Mrs. Murphy White will be in charge of the members and funds committee, and Borden Price will serve as chairman of the water safety and first aid program.

Plans for an active disaster program were made at the initial meeting with Dewey Bryant appointed to head the committee. Mrs. Charles Reckenbaugh was named to serve as head of the nursing program.

Joe Gidden will be the driving force behind the home service branch of the Red Cross program in the county. Gidden's duties include service to veterans and their families in the Canyon community. Margo Williams will head the committee on public information.

During an organizational meeting Thursday afternoon, Glen Ekey, field representative for Red Cross, discussed plans for enlarging the present program of the local chapter. Ekey explained various ways to increase the summer swimming program offered by the local Red Cross chapter.

Board members also discussed a fund raising project for the month of March with a goal set at $1620.

Happy Cowgirls In Bid For State Honors

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

If enthusiastic support could win a game, the Happy Cowgirls would certainly come out the champs this weekend at the Class B state finals in Austin.

Amid cheers and shouted phrases of good luck, the 18-member team and their quiet, soft-spoken coach, Bill Tennison, boarded a chartered bus Wednesday afternoon and headed to the big test of a great basketball team.

The Cowgirls face Lueders tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. in Austin's Gregory Gym in the first bout of the state tussles.

With high hopes and a striking 32-7 season record, the Cowgirls of Happy will invade Austin with determination to come out state champions for the first time in the school's history.

And Happy fans will add to the invasion as they travel to the state capital to offer support to their town's representatives.

A chartered bus was to leave Happy at 6:00 a.m. today and arrive in Austin at 6:30 p.m. Other fans will wait for the results of the Thursday night clash before travelling to see the other games.

If Happy wins against Lueders, they will face Trent High School at 9 a.m. Friday. The winner of that game will be faced with final competition Saturday at 8:50 p.m. The loser of the Happy-Trent clash will play for third place at 9 a.m. Saturday. All games will be played in Gregory Gym.

Happy won their right to the state finals by upsetting three teams last weekend at the regional tournament in Canyon.

In the first round of play Friday, the Cowgirls were victors over Ropesville, 54-37. Happy led the Ropes girls throughout the game with an 18-11 lead at the end of the first quarter and a 31-19 edge at half.

In the second game held Saturday morning in the WTSU gym, the Cowgirls dropped lightly-routed Roosevelt 65-50. Roosevelt had been picked to lead the tournament and Happy was to fall as number three or four.

Marcella Irlbeck led the Cowgirls to the upset victory by dropping 29 points through the basket. Martha Toles followed with 20 points and Irita Bowe, the Happy forward who scored 34 points in the bi-district tilt with Vega last week, bagged 16 points against Roosevelt.

Roosevelt was led by Alice

Wooley who netted 28 points for her team.

Happy bounced ahead in the first few minutes of the game to lead at the end of the first quarter 18-13. At half the score had narrowed to four points with Happy still ahead 33-

29.

Alice Womack, Sharon Johnson and Jeanne Tirey, Happy guards, halted efforts by Roosevelt to take the lead in the third period, and the Cowgirls led 47-39 at the beginning of the final period.

Happy progressed to the final stage to face Cotton Center, unexpected victors over the Claude girls.

Marcella Irlbeck again paced her teammates with 30 points through the nets. Irita Bowe dropped in 22, Willa Jane Elliott bagged three points and Martha Toles, alternating between guard and forward, put in two.

Happy again led all the way, but Cotton Center fought hard to keep the score at narrow margins.

At the end of the first period Happy led by six points,

16-10. Their lead increased by two points at half with 34-26 showing on the boards.

A hard fought defensive battle slowed scoring down in the second half as Happy led 47-39

at the beginning of the final quarter. As the buzzer sounded, the Cowgirls margin had been cut to six points, 57-51.

Irlbeck put in 10 shots from the free throw line and netted 10 field goals. Debbie Moring of Cotton Center dropped in nine free throws and bagged 11 from the court.

Irita Bowe of Happy scored six points from the free toss line and eight shots counted as field goals.

Honors for the new regional champs ended with three Cowgirl team members named to the all-regional team. Marcella Irlbeck and Martha Toles were picked as forwards and Alice Womack was named as all-tournament guard.

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

Forces brought to bear against those fighting the worldwide spread of communism is reaching incredible proportions.

The right to dissent so religiously embraced by pinks and fellow travelers a short time back--about the time "Operation Abolition" was in the news--has suddenly become something vile when one of their boys is on the griddle.

Operation Abolition was a documented film of a student riot in San Francisco during a House Un-American Activities Committee hearing. The commies used a lot of naive college students as catspaws.

Prime force behind that riot, in which the students resorted to outright violence and in which many persons were injured, was Archie Brown, West Coast communist leader.

Dupes, stooges and pinks across the country rushed to Brown's aid, tearfully pleading his and the students' right to dissent to a legally assembled Congressional committee carrying out a constitutional duty.

But let an individual or group raise a voice too loud in protest to devious and subtle commie encroachment and the same pack who yesterday wailed for the "right to dissent", even to the point of rioting and violence, will immediately set about to destroy that individual or group by means almost vile to be believed.

The number of actual communists in this country is small. The number of empty-headed ingrates who are willing to aid in the destruction of the free enterprise system that has been so good to them is appalling.

What is more appalling is the overwhelming majority--Main Street, USA---who actually know what is happening but are so galvanized by fear of smear that they are unwilling to help in the fight for their own salvation.

We have never wished to deny any man a forum. However, we think we have a right to resent the use of any state property as a platform from which to sow seeds of Marxism.

As a taxpayer, we help foot the bill for maintenance of state property. Naturally, we do not relish helping pay for something designed to destroy us.

Yes, we resent Gus Hall, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, the so-called communist eleven and anyone who has aided them.

We know what these people have in store for this country. We not only resent it. We intend to fight it.

If the Gus Halls, the Elizabeth Gurley Flynn's and their apologists want a forum from which to speak, let them hire one.

Hilltop Views

BY DR. J. A. HILL

As I often do before writing this column, I reached up into my book shelves this morning, pulled out a treasury of inspiration and read for two hours. It is a mentally purifying experience and always prompts me to share what I read with others.

Today I am quoting from three great Americans--Benjamin Franklin, Abraham Lincoln, and Booker T. Washington. Each quotation pertains to a problem that is now current in the American mind.

Franklin:
"I join with you most cordially in rejoicing at the return of peace. I hope it will be lasting, and that mankind will at length, as they call themselves reasonable creatures, have reason enough to settle their differences without cutting throats; for in my opinion, there never was a good war or a bad peace. What past additions to the conveniences and comforts of life might mankind have acquired, if money spent in wars had been employed in works of utility! What an extension of agriculture, even to the tops of the mountains; what rivers rendered navigable, or joined by canals; what bridges, aqueducts, new roads, and other public works, edifices and improvements, rendering England a complete paradise, might not have been obtained by spending those millions in doing good, which in the last war have been spent in doing mischief--in bringing misery into thousands of families and destroying the lives of so many working people, who might have performed the useful labors."

Lincoln:
"Labor is prior to and independent of capital. Capital is only the fruit of labor, could never have existed if labor had not first existed. Labor is the superior of capital, and deserves much the higher consideration."

Booker T. Washington
"The wisest among my race understand that the agitation of questions of social equality is the extremist folly, and that progress in the enjoyment of all the privileges that will come to us must be the result of severe and constant struggle rather than of artificial forcing. No race that has anything to contribute to the markets of the world is long in any degree ostracized."

We may not agree with what these sages have said here, but we must admit that all three of the problems to which they refer--war vs. peace, labor vs. capital, Negro vs. White--are still before us and await the application of a better philosophy than we have yet applied.

Dr. Workman WT Speaker

Dr. E. J. Workman, president of the New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology, will serve as a visiting lecturer at West Texas State University April 2-3.

He will visit under the auspices of the American Association of Physics Teachers and the American Institute of Physics.

The West Texas State University Bowling team will leave for Albuquerque, New Mexico Friday of this week to participate in the New Mexico Invitational Bowling Tourney at the University of New Mexico.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Root recently was their son, Clyde, and his daughter, Terri, from Amarillo.

Tuesday evening of this week, the Gene Roots entertained with a birthday supper honoring their son, Norris Root, of Amarillo. Norris' wife and their children, Cindy, Greg and Holly, were also guests.

Friday the 13th, the horror of the superstitious of heart, rolls around this week.

With laughing (but deliberate) care those superstitious souls religiously toss the spilled salt over the left shoulder as they cast an eye about for the workings of black cats and hazardous step ladders.

Throughout the day they are fearfully aware of the many small acts which might bring them the dreaded "bad luck."

Those of us caught in the web of believing these tales, are so conscious of the day and its ancient meanings, we nearly drop the mirror we just happen to handle.

And yes, even Mother Nature seems to be against us as we glance outside and it is raining. We forget instantaneously and open the umbrella just before we leave the building. What misery to remember all these hazards of a certain "black day."

As we sit down for dinner on the fateful Friday, we suddenly realize there are 13 persons seated around the table. We quickly excuse ourselves and eat in the kitchen.

Travelers will pick Friday the 13th to journey afar and always they pick the hotel which has a 13th floor and a room number 13. Naturally, they get the hexed room.

On this rare day, a bystander on a street corner will often hear a muttered "bread and butter" when a pole has come between two persons walking down the street together.

And subtly, yet abruptly, hammers and saws cease on that big day, especially when an addition is being made to the family home. Our forefathers believed an addition to the home was a sure sign of death.

The weekly card parties are called off on Friday the 13th, as a few 'believers' have a physical horror of drawing the Ace of Spades. Even Carmen realized what was in store when she drew the ace of the black suit.

With all these, and many many more, we wonder how our ancestors got through a usual day...such as the 13th. With trying to decide which step to take to avoid a possible catastrophe, we inevitably crash headlong into an even worse situation.

A solution: tell your boss about your feelings and lock yourself in your office for the day.

If you are the boss, relax. The worst luck you can have is to loose your position as head man, and next year you will be telling your boss about your superstitious nature.

Revival Begins March 15

Rev. and Mrs. Jimmy Wallis of Laverne, Oklahoma will begin a series of revival services at Faith Chapel, 2706 4th Avenue, on Sunday evening, March 15.

Rev. Wallis will also conduct special religious services at Faith Student Center during Religious Emphasis Week programs at West Texas State University, March 17-20.

Dierking Gets Coaching Post

Clarence E. Dierking, former All-Southwest Conference guard at Baylor University, has been named assistant football coach at West Texas State University.

Head football coach Joe Kerbel announced today that Dierking will join the Buffalo staff immediately as tackle and line-backer coach. Dierking replaces Joe Rector who coached the Buff tackles the last two years. Rector left last week to join the staff at Oklahoma University, his alma mater.

A three-year letterman at Baylor, Dierking has been in the coaching ranks since 1955. He coached lines and line-backers at University High School in Waco from 1955 to 1959 and held the same assignment at Tarleton State College from 1960 through last fall.

CLARENCE DIERKING

Dierking played high school football at Brenham, his hometown. Brenham High won its district three of the four years Dierking was on the squad. At Baylor he was named to the SWC honor squad in 1953 and 1954. He was a member of the 1954 Baylor team that went to the Gator Bowl.

Dierking, or "Dirk" as he is known, received his BS degree in Physical Education from Baylor in 1955. He is now working on his masters degree.

Aside from his football coaching duties in high school and college, Dirk has also been a track coach at both institutions he worked at. He threw the shot put and ran on the sprint medley relay team in high school.

Rector, who had been assistant football coach at WT for the past two years, has accepted an assistant coach job at the University of Oklahoma.

Returning to his old school, Rector said he would not have considered leaving WT except that his new job is with Oklahoma.

He was line coach at the University of California before joining the university staff here, and played varsity ball at Oklahoma in 1956-57 and in 1958. During that time the Sooners won two bowl games.

At OU he will replace George Dickson, who has resigned to join the Denver Broncos.

become a coach while I was playing at Baylor", Dierking said. "And I have never once been sorry I chose this career. I am now very pleased to be joining the staff at West Texas State."

"I feel this is a great opportunity for me. I am well aware of Coach Kerbel's coaching ability and his record, and I feel honored to join his staff. It is a real privilege for me. I feel I have gained a lot of experience at the college level while at Tarleton State. And I feel I can put this experience to work at WT. I'm looking forward to a long and productive association with Coach Kerbel and the staff at West Texas State."

Coach Kerbel, pleased with Dierking's enthusiasm and past coaching record, said "We consider ourselves extremely fortunate to secure the services of Coach Dierking. He has the kind of experience that will prove invaluable to the future West Texas State linemen. We also know that Dirk will make a direct contribution to all phases of Buffalo football, and we are looking forward to having him and his wife as members of our athletic family."

Dierking married the former Delberta Johnson of Hugoton, on Dec. 28, 1963. The Dierkings have moved into an apartment in Canyon this week.

Rector, who had been assistant football coach at WT for the past two years, has accepted an assistant coach job at the University of Oklahoma.

Returning to his old school, Rector said he would not have considered leaving WT except that his new job is with Oklahoma.

He was line coach at the University of California before joining the university staff here, and played varsity ball at Oklahoma in 1956-57 and in 1958. During that time the Sooners won two bowl games.

At OU he will replace George Dickson, who has resigned to join the Denver Broncos.

Eagles Open Track Season

In addition to individual honors, the four boys took second in the mile relay, but failed to place in the 440-yard relay.

Coach E. J. "Jeep" Webb said that participation in the meet for team members was strictly voluntary, since most of the boys wanted to go to Austin for the basketball finals.

Models, attired in numerous fashions ranging from formal to informal, entered the stage through white lattice work screens depicting the Victorian setting for 'My Fair Lady'. Floral bouquets and rose trees in pink and white lent a formal atmosphere to the setting which was lighted with a black wrought iron bench and gas lantern.

Those acknowledged were Mrs. Gerald Dietz, general planning chairman; McDonald's Shop, fashion furnisher; HR's Flowers for floral arrangements; Southern Furniture of Amarillo; the high school art department for publicity posters; Mrs. Glenn Dowlen for organ numbers played during the pageant; and Debra Davenport and Wm. City Commissioners Help With Lift Station

City commissioners agreed Monday night to participate with A. L. Crossland, Canyon real estate developer, to install a sewage lift station west of the City Park and south of the present city limits.

Crossland had asked the cooperation of the city two weeks ago to help with the installation of the station. Commissioner Paul Lindsey suggested the city share 50 per cent of the cost with the developer and no pay-back agreement would be made.

Lindsey also added to his proposal the necessity of having the lift station within the city limits of Canyon. Location of the proposed station is out of the present city limits. Commissioners discussed plans to annex some land in the Hidden Valley Addition.

The commission also heard first reading of an ordinance granting Bill Taylor a franchise to operate a taxicab service here.

The ordinance requires Taylor to carry insurance and to pay two per cent of the gross income to the city for the franchise.

A. W. Lair, consulting attorney for the city, suggested the insurance be set at $50,000. Commissioners did not set a definite insurance rate necessary for operation of the taxicab service, but an amount will be fixed before the final reading of the ordinance.

The ordinance must have three readings by the commissioners before it becomes effective.

City tax rates for the 1964-65 fiscal year were set at $1.50 per $100 valuation by the commissioners. A special budget hearing will be held March 23. Budget for the coming year totals $415,301. Actual expenditures for 1963-64 were $392,490.

Commissioners authorized Dewey Bryant, city manager, to call for bids on seal coating and patching 46 blocks of city streets.

In other action Monday, commissioners granted requests by Mrs. Cecil Parkhill and Buddy Simpson to keep horses on property which is inside city limits. Mrs. Parkhill wants to keep three animals and Simpson requested to keep two horses, both in the Heller Addition of the city.

Farmers Union Plans Speech By Candidate

The executive committee of the Randall County Farmers Union is making plans to bring Don Yarborough of Houston to Canyon as feature speaker for a future union meeting.

Union officers said that if they are successful in getting the Democratic gubernatorial candidate to Canyon the meeting would be open to the general public.

The preliminary plans were made at a meeting last week in the C. T. Henry home, 2607 7th Ave.

Officers said if Yarborough makes the trip to Canyon, his talk will be on the programs and policies of the Farmers Union rather than political.

Named to a program committee for the union were Mrs. Gilbert Irlbeck, Mrs. James Lamb, Mrs. Tom Henry and Mrs. Dean Schaeffer. The union now has about 160 members.

A date for the next meeting will be announced.

Baptist Youths Plan Week Of Activities

Youth Week at the First Baptist Church of Canyon will be conducted with teenage and college students conducting a variety of special activities at the church from March 16-22.

"The main purpose of youth week is to allow the young people an opportunity to assume the responsibility for church affairs, and they will take over temporary positions as church officers during the week," says Charles Lovell, youth director.

A highlight of the week's activities will be a series of youth banquets on March 19 and 20 in Fellowship Hall of the church.

The banquet Thursday will be for the 13 and 14 year old group, and Friday's banquet will serve the 15 through senior high school section.

"Music Man" will be the decoration theme for both banquets according to Lovell.

The two youth divisions will assume official church offices for the morning services on Sunday, March 22, by teaching in all Sunday school departments and being in charge of the morning's special music program. Rev. Strauss Atkinson will deliver a sermon concerning youth at the service.

Youth Week activities will conclude Sunday evening, March 22, with the junior and chapel choirs giving a presentation of "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by DuBois, a special Easter program.

Beginning April 1, doors to the city hall in Canyon will be closed on Saturdays and Sundays, according to Dewey Bryant, city manager.

Bryant said that the decision to close the city hall on Saturdays was made this week.

The change came about when Pioneer Natural Gas Company requested the possible time change. The gas company must remain open the same times that the city hall is open.

City commissioners discussed the idea of having the building open Monday through Friday and advised Bryant to check with city hall offices in this area.

Bryant said most area offices are closed on Saturdays, and the commissioners decided to have the local city hall close also.

A night depository box will be placed on the front door of the building and emergency numbers will be placed on the front door for those needing help during the closed hours.

So, if you have been paying that monthly water bill on Saturdays, change your schedule and go by the city hall from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, or drop it in the night depository box which will be placed on the door April 1.

Curator Meets Museum Group
Boone McClure, curator of Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, was in Colorado City, Tex., last week to inspect a private historical museum and assess the value of it as a city-county operation.

McClure said he recommended that the museum be acquired and operated for public use.

McClure was invited to inspect the property by G. D. Foster, a Colorado City businessman.

The machine was presented to the hospital last fall.

Several patients at Neblett Hospital have already benefited from a heart machine donated by the Charles H. White family of Lewisville and the Canyon Community Center Fund.

In a letter to the fund Dr. Charles Nester, president of the medical staff, said some portions of the four-stage machine have already been used.

"The monitor of the Corbin-Farnsworth Cardiac Monitor and Resuscitator equipment has been used by us on several occasions since it has been in our hospital, and it gives the doctors a certain sense of security knowing that any change in the patient's heart condition will immediately be known," he said.

"The generosity of your organization is greatly appreciated, and we feel that the entire community stands to benefit from your action."

Happy FFA Chapter Gets Silver Emblem

Happy's Future Farmers of America chapter have earned the 'silver emblem' rating according to a recent announcement made by the national association of FFA.

Monday evening, March 9, the Happy FFA chapter presented a number of awards to outstanding chapter members and held an installation ceremony at their second annual FFA banquet.

The formal banquet festivities, which were staged in the cafeteria of Happy High School, were attended by a group of approximately 174 members and parents.

Eddie Moudy, retiring FFA president, served as master of ceremonies for the banquet program which was opened with a ceremony by the retiring officers. Moudy gave the address of welcome and introduced special guests who were present for the affair including the faculty, press, and local business men.

The response was given by Cherie Holland, president of the FFA Chapter.

Miss Martha Toles was presented with a Sweetheart jacket, necklace and a bouquet of red roses as she was crowned FFA Sweetheart by Eddie Moudy, during the banquet festivities.

Honorary chapter farmer awards were presented to D. L. Allison and Vernon Harmon as special recognition for their help with chapter activities. Other special thanks were extended by the chapter to Harmon Toles, Mrs. Carline Moore, Mrs. D. L. Allison and Sam Bryan, school superintendent. Receiving awards on the program were John McNeal, outstanding senior student; Ricky Harmon, leadership abilities, and Randy Johnson, for outstanding work and accomplishments with the chapter.

Scholarship awards for grade averages in all subjects went to Larry Stevens, senior division, and Bill Vernon, junior division. Jim Allison was presented with the Lone Star Farmer degree for his outstanding leadership abilities and accomplishments.

Other awards went to Eddie Moudy for livestock demonstrations, and projects; Don Rahls for a well supervised crop farming project; and Ronnie Via, farm mechanics award for outstanding use of tools and equipment.

James G. McManigal gave the chapter's accounting of projects and activities for the past year which included the recognition by the national association as a 'silver emblem' chapter. The Happy FFA chapter took six first places in livestock judging contests; 3 second places and 3 third places in a variety of competitive contests which were entered during the year, each contest had an individual scoring high for the Happy FFA chapter. The chapter's team entered 5 barrow shows during the current season and took top place honors at four of the shows.

An installation of new officers was conducted at the close of the banquet with the retiring officers conducting the installation. James G. McManigal was installed as new president by Eddie Moudy.

Other officers installed were Wayne Stevens, vice president; Tom Moudy, secretary; Joe Johnson, treasurer; Jerry D. Danner, reporter; and Robert Q. McManigal, signal.

Retiring officers who participated in the installation rites were John McNeil, Ricky Harmon, Tom Moudy, James L. Allison, and Ronald G. Via.

Jim McManigal, new president, and Eddie Moudy, retiring president, are both currently seeking the state Lone Star Farmer award. The closing ceremony was conducted by the newly installed officers.

Lot Chosen As Lutheran Site

The new Lutheran chapel will be built on the southeast corner 4th Avenue and 26th Street, according to the Rev. W. E. Eckhardt, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church.

Eckhardt made the announcement following completion of site negotiations this week.

Construction of a sanctuary which will seat some 250 persons and facilities for student use will begin later this year.

Additional land facing 5th was included in the transaction and will be used for parking space and Sunday School class rooms.

'64 Chevy II Super Sport with V8 power

...and just the place to enjoy it

Find out for yourself what this Chevy II can really do. If there are hills nearby, let it give them a good going-over. Then see it give slow-moving trucks the run-around. With its new extra-cost V8 you need but give the accelerator an inch, and this Super Sport will take a mile.

And this great highway performer looks the part it plays so well. A glance at its all-vinyl interior and door-to-door carpeting will tell you that. There's your choice of either the floor-mounted Powerglide or Four-Speed Synchro-Mesh transmission. Both are optional at extra cost, along with a Positraction rear axle, AM-FM radio, and many other accessories. And for all its new power, Chevy II rides so softly it seems to glide along the highway. That's because it has high-mounted independent coil springs in the front and Mono-Plate single-leaf springs in the rear.

With everything Chevy II Super Sport has going for it, it's no surprise your Chevrolet dealer is anxious to show you its price tag. Because that's the only thing about it that isn't super.

C-C Offers Shoppers' Idea Box

Another step in keeping the Canyon Chamber of Commerce on an upward move began this week with a shoppers suggestion box on the city square. Canyon shoppers now have the opportunity to offer suggestions, recommendations and ideas to the chamber and local businessmen. The box has been placed on the front of the chamber office at 1511 Fourth Avenue, and shoppers of Canyon are invited to give any ideas which might improve the chamber. Benny Cooper, chairman of the business development committee of the Chamber of Commerce, began the suggestion campaign this week. "All suggestions will be confidential and names do not have to be signed to the recommendations," said Roland Black, Chamber Manager.

a district championship. He went on to play for West Texas State where he was all-conference two years. Two of those years the Buffs were conference champions.

It was a weary flock of Eagles that homed on the Eagle's Nest Sunday evening. The group was delayed in Tulsa by a flat tire. Charlie Donnell, Chamber of Commerce president, hand lettered three signs which read "Welcome Home State Champions." The signs were held by several CHS girls across the gym from the bleachers where the welcoming group was seated.

Coach Allen Simpson and his crew, along with Coach Jeep Webb, sat in a semi-circle in the center of the gym to receive the plaudits of admiring fellow townsmen.

"If the people of Canyon had to pick a good-will delegation, they would look to you boys," Mayor Lowes told the team.

The boys received a standing ovation and hearty handshakes from members of the crowd.

The team, traveling in three cars, was met at Happy by a Randall County Sheriff's Department car and escorted to Canyon. The group was met there by city police cars and escorted to the welcoming jamboree.

Bedlam broke loose at Gregory Gym in Austin Saturday morning as the buzzer sounded on the nerve-racking 52-51 championship game.

Coach Allen Simpson was carried from the Gym to the dressing room on the shoulders of his charges. Then he was dumped, fully clothed, into a shower. Bob Begert, a star from last year's runner-up team, also was doused under a shower.

Estimates on the crowd of Canyon people on hand for the final Eagle game in Austin ran square for helpful recommendations by local shoppers. The chamber is looking for ideas from community buyers, so drop by 1511 Fourth Avenue in Canyon and help the Chamber of Commerce.

ditional plant. He noted particularly that enrollment at Rex Reeves Elementary School is "very large, as such schools go."

The speaker urged that consideration be given to a remedial reading program in the elementary grades.

"Drop-outs, poor grades, and failure of students to derive the full benefit of the teaching program at the higher levels may almost always be traced back to a deficiency in reading skill," he said.

Dr. Fallon pointed out that growth of the Canyon school system also implies need for a strengthened program of pupil guidance, special testing and health service. He also called attention to development of library facilities and teaching aids, and a heightened degree of parent participation in school programs.

"Call it simply good public relations, if you will," he said, "but the fact remains that parent interest is a valuable contribution to the teaching program. After all, the people of a community are stockholders in their public schools."

He also pointed to a need for additional special help to coordinate the teaching program over the 12-grade span.

On hand in Austin for both Canyon games, and one of the happiest fans in the gym, was Joe Abbott. Joe was an all-state member of the championship team of 1950. Joe said he ran into Robert McClendon at the game Saturday in Austin. McClendon was a reserve player for the 1950 team.

This year's championship team roster includes Steve Burgess, Don Breitling, Bobby Evans, Dudley "Skipper" Moore, Eddie Poole, Jim Whinnery, Joel "Jody" Richardson, Ronnie Bacon, Alex deSchweinitz, Gary Fletcher, Dennis Haley and Tommy Higgins.

Reggie Reeves and Bill Long made the trip as team managers.

This year made the fifth time for the Eagles to play in the state tournament. On the first trip, in 1926, the Eagles lost a 22-21 heartbreaker to Brackenridge of San Antonio. Mitchell Jones, now dean of men at West Texas State, was high school coach then.

The Eagles defeated South San Antonio 49 to 25 to win the crown in 1950. The next year the Canyon team was dropped 33 to 32 by the Sinton Pirates.

In 1963 the Eagles lost to Buna 47 to 41 in the championship game.

TSTA Meeting Slated Friday

Friday the 13th is a lucky day for local school students.

While university, high school, junior high and elementary students take a one-day vacation from studies, their teachers and instructors will be attending an all-day educational conference for the Texas State Teachers Association, District IX, in Amarillo.

Canyon's public school superintendent, Huelyn Laycock, announced this week that the public schools will be closed on Friday and nearly all teachers are expected to attend the workshop and conferences which will be held at the Municipal Auditorium in Amarillo.

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State University, confirmed that students at the university will be dismissed from all classes on Friday, March 13th, so that instructors and various students may participate in the annual teacher's conference. Classes for Saturday only students will be at the instructor's discretion according to Dr. Cornette.

The district president, Mrs. Dan F. Sanders of Canyon, will preside during the House of Delegates Banquet Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Amarillo High School cafeteria.

During the banquet festivities, new district officers will be elected and committee reports heard along with progress reports from other area officers.

District IX of the Texas State Teachers Association covers the entire Panhandle beginning with a line from Farwell, Friona, Tulia and Childress northward and "I can't estimate how many teachers and school personnel are expected for the conference, but all are requested to attend, so we will probably have a fine turnout," says Huelyn Laycock.

"The Space Age Challenge To Education" has been selected as the conference theme for the general business session which will begin at 9:00 a.m. on Friday, March 13, at the Municipal Auditorium in Amarillo with Mrs. Dan Sanders of Canyon, president, presiding.

Faculty members who have not pre-registered may do so in the corridor from 8:30 until 9:00 according to Mrs. Sanders.

Mrs. Lee Foster of Canyon will present an organ prelude as members of the delegations are seated for the morning session.

Dr. Charles Bish, director of the NEA project on the Academically Talented, of Washington, D. C. will be guest speaker with an address on "Quality Education For Them in Their Time."

Boy Scout Troops 31 and 66 of Canyon will open the morning session with the presentation of colors. Rev. Newton Starnes, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Canyon, will give the invocation.

Amarillo's mayor, F. V. Wallace, the superintendent of Amarillo schools, Dr. Robert R. Ashworth, and the president of TSTA from Corpus Christi, Mrs. Elizabeth Little, will be noted speakers at the general morning session Friday.

Sectional meeting will begin at noon with a series of luncheons and special workshop forums being scheduled for all teachers in special fields. Canyon teachers and instructors who will assist with leadership in the sectional meeting include Dr. Wendell Roy, WTSU, who will speak for the industrial arts workshop; Ronald Huffstutler, WTSU, speaker for a division of 4th, 5th, and 6th grade mathematics; Mrs. Linnie Harter, CHS, secretary-treasurer for the library forum; Gene Murray, CHS, chairman for vocal music and choir section; T. J. Leonard, WTSU associate government professor, speaker for social studies section on "Southeast Asia".

The sectional workshop meetings are scheduled to be held throughout the city of Amarillo with groups meeting in various public schools, private restaurant dining rooms, and club meeting rooms.

Aside from Mrs. Sanders presidential office in the Texas State Teacher's Association, District IX, other local school personnel who have been either chairmen or assistants on district committees for the past year include J. B. Roberts, Mrs. Wilma Jo Bush, Dr. Kenneth Waugh, Mrs. A. B. Holt, Mrs. Evelyn Frieze, Charles Smalwood, and Dr. Emmitt Smith.

Mrs. Sanders notes that the program cover for the District IX meeting Friday is a reproduction of a mural painted by Canyon High School art students during the spring of 1963 under the direction of Mrs. Royal Brantley. The mural depicts teen age life and interests in a center sphere with a scenic sectional background, picturing community aspects of churches, schools, and businesses.

His statements challenge the thinking person to deeper and more intelligent research, but likewise, they disturb, distress, discourage, and oftentimes destroy the vital faith in religious authority and divine action in human life.

West Texan Views Changing Latin World

BY FRED TRIPP

When, after a spell of living in the domain of the Southern Cross, you return to the plains of Texas, the first thing you remember is that winter comes in December and a topcoat isn't needed in July.

"Then," said Joyce Hill, "you have to remember that American English is your native tongue and not the language of a visiting 'foreigner'."

Miss Hill, a Methodist missionary worker in Latin America since 1952, last week returned on furlough to her home here at 608 20th Street after spending eight years in Cuba and three in Buenos Aires, the cosmopolitan capital of Argentina.

With her she brought a bookful of memories and insights, which she discusses with clarity and fluency—and just the faintest touch of a Spanish accent.

"I know it sounds funny," she said, "because I was born in Canadian and reared in Canyon. But, really, it's been nearly 12 years since English has been an everyday language for me."

Miss Hill was assigned to a teaching job in Cuba by the Board of Mission of the Methodist Church in 1952 after she received a degree in arts from West Texas State University and a graduate degree in educational administration from George Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn.

She remained in Cuba until October, 1960, when the anti-U. S. policies of Castro made it impossible for U. S. nationals to work effectively in churches, schools or industry. Before leaving, however, Miss Hill had a glimpse of some of the techniques of dictatorship based on a specious appeal to the 'interests' of the underprivileged masses.

"Like opera tickets," she said. "Fidel reduced the price to 25 cents or so for the propaganda value of saying that a status symbol was now within reach of the masses. Silly, but typical of the approach in the spacious days when everybody thought the end of Batista was also the end of inequality."

"Fidel also touched one of the mainsprings of popularity with his talk of Cuba for the Cubans. Nationalism runs strong throughout Latin America, and the Cuban peasants had no trouble in identifying their misery with foreign 'oppressors'—American, English and others—who did in fact enjoy a standard of living far above that of the average Cuban."

But she confesses she's a bit surprised that Americans remained so long in doubt of Castro's intentions.

"I suppose it wasn't publicized in U. S. newspapers, but Fidel's first speech after he won was against the U. S.," she said.

Arrival of technicians and 'advisors' from communist bloc countries also seems to have attracted much less notice in the U. S. press at first than it did later.

"Just before I left, it was apparent that Fidel was relying heavily on Russian and Polish technicians and agrarian experts from Red China," she said.

Of the Cuban man-on-the-street, however, Miss Hill speaks kindly.

"For a whole year, once, I practically lived in the cane-fields, helping the peasants. I felt then that they were grateful to the American people for aid and assistance. Current anti-American sentiments are the result of a whipped-up campaign by the government and are, I'm sure, not as sincere as they may sound."

In March, 1961, Miss Hill arrived in Buenos Aires—"the Paris of Latin America"—to direct a home for university girls.

"Despite the excellent school system, no provision is made for dormitories such as we have here," she said. "This creates a problem for the out-of-town girl student, because custom decrees that no responsible Argentine family dare allow a young lady to live unsupervised in the big city."

In 1961, she said, Argentina was still in the throes of recovery from economic setbacks bequeathed to the nation by Juan Peron—another dictator who rode to power on a broad appeal to the "descamisados," or "shirtless" proletariat of field and factory.

"Peron nationalized the railroads, the telephone system, certain other segments of industry," Miss Hill recalled. "This required an immense outlay for capital for which there was no corresponding increase in production. As the result, the Argentine peso fell, inflation rose, and the country was in turmoil."

The effects of Peronism are still being felt, she said, but popular opinion is more optimistic now than it has been in a long time.

"Argentina still lacks an adequate market for its wheat and beef, and the peso is still at an uncomfortable 140 to one U. S. dollar. On the other hand, the people have more confidence in the present government, the standard of living is the highest in Latin America, and oil resources and industry are being developed."

As in other parts of the continent, American investments in Argentina are being nationalized, but the process has been channeled through the courts, with separate settlements in each case.

"All in all, U. S. businessmen in Argentina feel they are being dealt with more fairly than in some other Latin Am-

MISS JOYCE HILL, Methodist missionary worker in Latin America, ponders some of the changes in the Canyon scene on her return to the U. S. after 12 years' absence. It's nice, she says, to be in a place where traffic is controlled and pedestrians even have the right of way.

erican nations," Miss Hill said.

She speaks of her job and of Buenos Aires with delight and affection.

"The city is surely one of the loveliest in the world, in spite of the usual big-city hurry, clutter and problems."

"The last streetcars are being done away with, to expedite traffic, and the streets are filled with European small cars."

"There's no such thing as a cab stand, because the city fathers argue that such facilities would take up too much parking space. So the cabs have to keep moving all day, and when you want one you just stand on the curb and try your luck at flagging one."

"Labor is represented by a big central union, but government employees have no official representation and therefore resort to the slowdown or the strike."

"Our last serious one involved the mail service. The carriers didn't quit entirely, but they refused to deliver more than one piece of mail to any one address.

"The odd thing, though, is that not a piece of mail was lost, although we had to wait three months before the carriers decided to resume full service."

On another occasion, Miss Hill visited a 13th floor office and was reminded how lucky she had been to choose that particular day.

"It turned out the elevator operators in that building had been on strike for weeks, and had returned to work only that morning," she said.

Argentine finances also remain in somewhat precarious condition.

"Each month, the big newspapers carry a page one announcement that government salaries for the preceding month are about to be paid," she said.

Nor does the integrity of the mails enjoy much confidence from the government.

"People living on pensions have to go to the bank in person to get their checks. If you're a bedridden invalid, you have to give power of attorney ing habits. You usually have a French breakfast of coffee and roll, an Argentine steak lunch, an English tea at 5 o'clock. The big Sunday dinner item in Buenos Aires is ravioli, and the favorite pastry style is French."

"Schools are patterned on the French lycee system, and students seem to be academically more advanced and intellectually more mature than U. S. youngsters of the same age."

"On the crowded streets you can hear practically every language in the world. In my own group of girls I have representatives of Yugoslavian, Welsh, French, Italian, and German ancestry."

"It all makes for a good deal of tolerance, religious freedom, and a spirit of give-and-take not common in all parts of Latin America."

And Miss Hill's view of the U. S. after a 12-year absence?

"Well, after the shock of hearing English spoken everywhere, I guess the biggest thing is actually to see all the mechanization that one reads about," she said.

"Like coin changers. I was in a laundromat once and was absolutely fascinated by those machines that give nickels and dimes and quarters.

Students from junior high schools in the New Mexico district will be competing.

"Another thing is the traffic. It's nice to find a place in the world where traffic is controlled by lights and signs, and the pedestrian even has the right of way once in a while."

"Most of all, it's heartening to meet again with that good old outgoing spirit of West Texas—to be able to walk into a store, for example, and be greeted by someone who wants to help you."

Miss Hill will spend a year in the U. S. before she returns to South America. Her next assignment is not definite, but she's fairly certain it will be in Buenos Aires.

"And I'll be happy to see it again," she says. "Really, I don't think there's another city in the world quite like it..."

WT Coed Finds Fun As Recording Artist

BY MARGO WILLIAMS
She draped one leg over the arm of the dormitory chair and played the ukelele softly as she spoke.

Laughter came easily to the girl in slacks and music came naturally from the small instrument held in her hands.

An observer listening to the small chit-chat of this college coed would not know she is a recording artist. This girl dressed in slacks and wearing her hair cut short, would appear as an average student in their sophomore year at West Texas State University.

But Sydna Taylor has opened a door separating a well-loved hobby and a chance at national fame.

Sydna, sophomore at WT from Fritch, talks casually of her possibilities for future acclaim. She is aware of the chances which might prove to make her famous, but she nonchalantly talks of her future in other fields.

Sydna began learning music when she was six years old. "My mother liked music and wanted me to learn so I began singing when I was six," Sydna recalled.

"The older I became the more public appearances I made. While I was in high school I sang for club banquets, high school assemblies, PTA meetings. Nearly everything that came along. But I enjoyed it," she explained.

Sydna learned to play the uke while a freshman in high school. "Before I was accompanied by a piano. After I learned to play the uke I accompanied myself. Sometimes I would sing with a group accompanying me," she continued.

Prospects for the future began looking good three years ago when Sydna hired a manager to handle her business affairs.

"He found me. I appeared in a talent show in Amarillo and he spent the next year trying to locate me."

"You have to have a manager in this business. You have to have someone behind you to push. Also they must make contacts for you. A manager knows everyone and can make appointments and set up recording times for you. They are very necessary," she said.

The small town folk singer made a record a year ago on the Desire label. "You Only Pass This Way One Time" became well known in Texas, but was not released nationally.

"I sang it fast, which is not really my style. I like slow folk ballads, but my manager felt the fast would be better for the first release," Sydna explained.

Sydna again looks to the future for results from another recording which will be released soon. She will sing the same song but with a group accompanying her.

"This one will be released nation-wide and my manager hopes to hit the hundred chart with it."

"I hope it hits the hundred chart too...as a matter of fact," she said laughingly.

Sydna, while spending much time with her uke, has found time to develop interest in several fields aside from music.

She is majoring in physical education with her eye cast to a specialty in physical therapy. "I plan to go to Houston after I graduate from WT. I want to go into physical therapy," she explained.

Aside from her interests in sports, Sydna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Taylor of Fritch, bubbles over with enthusiasm when Girl Scouts are mentioned.

"I joined the Girl Scouts in grade school and have stayed with it through high school. I really love the program and have had more fun with Girl Scout activities than almost anything," Sydna said with a gleam in her eye.

She is now an associate Girl Scout and plans to spend this summer teaching as a canoe instructor at Cam Galloway Valley in Indiana.

"I've never handled a canoe before, but they give us a week or so of lessons before the camps begin...thank goodness," she commented.

Last summer this recording artist-Girl Scout taught water ballet and first aid at a Girl Scout camp near Crosbyton.

"I love the water front instruction. I am a Water Safety Instructor and enjoy teaching synchronized swimming and water ballet in addition to regular swimming to Brownies and Girl Scouts," she said.

During the summer of 1962 Sydna was patrol leader for a group of scouts attending the Girl Scout Roundup in Vermont.

"We had a ball. We were associated with girls from all over the United States and we all made some very close friends," she said.

As Miss Taylor patiently awaits the progress of her new record she occupies her time in typical college girl style. She is kept busy with sorority, classes and making personal appearances for special occasions.

"I don't know if I'll continue my singing on a large scale. Only the Good Lord knows what will happen after I graduate from WT," she concluded.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will sponsor a St. Patrick's dance and social on Saturday evening, March 14, at the VFW Hall, north of the city.

Christian Church Has Speaker

Ezekiel B. Vargas, director of the Hereford Migrant Ministry, Inc., will be guest speaker Sunday evening, March 15 for the School of World Outreach being conducted at the First Christian Church of Canyon.

Mr. Vargas will discuss aspects of his work as co-ordinator with the migrant ministry at Hereford. His speech will begin at 7 p.m., following a series of individual classes which will be held at 6:00 p.m.

A refreshment period and fellowship hour will be held in Fellowship Hall after the program according to Mrs. Ross Russell, chairman for the World Outreach study series.

"The Awakening Village", a feature length film, will be presented on March 22, as the final program for the study course. The film which depicts the effects of Christian missions on the villages and people of India will follow an all-church sandwich supper which begins at 5:30 p.m.

John David Fort, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fort, was honored on his 8th birthday with a party at his home and a trip to see Freddie the Fireman's Show in Amarillo.

Among other guests attending the festivities on Monday, March 2, were the honoree's two brothers, Danny and Jimmy.

DELORIS BATTS of Canadian, WT student in special education, and Glenn Reeves, graduate assistant in the education department, stand beside an example of art work done by elementary graders at Emerson School in Amarillo. The exhibit of art work by school children is the first of a series designed to stimulate pupils' and public interest in art education.

WT Show Features Student Art Work

A program to bring to public attention some of the outstanding art work being done by school children here and in Amarillo began last week with an exhibit in the Education Building at West Texas State University.

The program, sponsored by the WT Education Department, calls for successive 30-day shows of representative work by each school.

The program is being handled by Dr. B. J. Brim, assistant professor of education and psychology at WT, and by Glen Reeves, graduate assistant, and Miss Deloris Batts of Canadian, WT student in special education.

The first show, now on display in Room 1-E of the Education Building on the WT campus, features examples of work done by students in the third through sixth grades of Emerson Elementary School in Amarillo under the supervision of Mrs. Betty Bonnette.

Included are sketches in charcoal, tempera, water color, and colored chalk, as well as linoleum and cardboard block prints, clay and papier-mache figures and animal figurines constructed from ordinary household materials.

"We set up the program because we think our teacher education students need to be aware of what children are really capable of doing in the field of art," Dr. Brim said. "We hope also that the exhibits will have a motivating influence on other students in grade and high schools, and will bring to the attention of the public the excellent work that is being done."

The exhibition will be open to students and public from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Junior High Judging Team Places Third

Canyon Junior High School livestock judging team placed third in the Olton Livestock Judging Contest last week.

Chester Hales, member of the team, was third high individual in the contest out of 29 individuals entered.

The Canyon team was one of nine entered in the annual competition.

Members of the newly-organized team are Bill Bell, Mickey Abbott, Charles Sykes and Hales. Fred Boone is the junior high agriculture instructor and sponsor of the team.

Services Held For Westfall

Thomas J. Westfall, 75, father of Jim Westfall of Canyon, died last Friday afternoon at his home in Amarillo.

Mr. Westfall had been a resident of Amarillo for 22 years. He was born in Madison County, Arkansas, Sept. 16, 1888. He was a retired night waterman at Amarillo Country Club and a member of the West Amarillo Church of Christ. He was owner of the Westfall Driving Range in Amarillo.

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning in an Amarillo funeral chapel with H. L. Gipson, minister of the West Amarillo Church of Christ, officiating and Odell Purdy, minister of the Forest Hills Church of Christ, assisting. Burial was at Llano Cemetery in Amarillo.

Survivors include his wife, Jettie Mae; four sons, T. C. of Dublin, C. R. of Beagle Air Force Base, California, Bobby of Floydada, and Jim of Canyon; four daughters, Mrs. A. L. Barker of Floydada, Mrs. Nash Folley and Mrs. Bill Talley, both of Amarillo, and Mrs. Bill Fry of Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Also surviving are a brother, Lee of Canyon; two sisters, Mrs. A. T. Montgomery and Miss Della Westfall, both of Canyon; and 26 grandchildren.

V.I.P.
"Five foot two, eyes of blue," describes the V.I.P., this week from me. She is blonde Evelyn Naomi Dowd, who lists her home as Waco, where she was born on December 19; but has called Happy her home since her marriage to Bob Dowd on August 25, 1948. They have two daughters: Barbara Jane who is nine years of age and in the third grade, and Beverly Kaye, who is six and will start to school September, 1964. If often you see Evelyn's new white car parked at the Happy Implement Case House, she is probably not making a transaction for a new tractor;—but visiting with her husband, the owner. Her high school alma mater is La Vega High School, near Waco.

A favorite dish of hers is fish, and the color blue always attracts her attention. Alfred Hitchcock's Hour on television is a preference of hers, along with Gregory Peck on the screen. For her favorite pastime, she likes to drink coffee, which goes right well with another pastime of hers,—bowling in the Koffee Kup League at 1:30, Thursdays, in Canyon. She dislikes to iron about as much as anything else; and insincere people are her pet peeve. Evelyn is a member of the First Baptist Church and teaches the Primary Sunday School Class. Eastern Star is an "outside" activity of hers, along with keeping up with Sunbeams, parties, and the many school activities that are in abundance when you are the mother of two growing little girls. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Frazier of Waco are Evelyn's parents.

Last weekend Miss Bonnie Starker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Starker, flew home to spend some time with her family.

La Nelle Todd, Ruth Maynard, and Janie King visited with Ann Loring, of Tulia, Tuesday morning, and drove to Amarillo that afternoon to do some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Weatherly and Stacy went to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Weatherly, in Wheeler, last weekend.

We're glad to report that Sheila La Duke is out of the hospital. She was released Tuesday, March 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith of Canyon visited in the Babe Walberg home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Keene McDonald and Mrs. Clinton Miller spent last weekend at Boise City, Oklahoma, with their husbands who are working there.

Gene Wilson, uncle of Ervin Darrell, and Charles Wilson, passed away Thursday afternoon in Austin, Texas, with a heart attack.

The Sunnyhill Home Demonstration Club met March 5, in the home of Mrs. E. W. Miller with Mrs. Clinton Miller co-hostess. Mrs. Sally Pulley, agent, gave a most interesting program on quality of shoes and match materials. Those present, members and guests, were Mesdames: Si Elliot, Tom Henry, Kelley McGehee, Bertie Culp, Orva Henry, Harry Hardaway, Everett Culp, Larry Tackett, agent, hostess, and co-hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tackett were in Amarillo Thursday shopping.

The Junior Choir of the First Baptist Church was presented a certificate Sunday morning from the Music Festival in Plainview where they sang Feb. 22, and given an Excellent rating. They have been invited to sing at the Music Clinic in Amarillo on May 7. Their director is Robert Clemens. Our congratulations to them.

Victor Harman had surgery at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moore attended funeral services for his grandmother in Hollis, Oklahoma, last week.

The Happy 4-H Club met March 9 in the school auditorium. The program chairman was Mrs. Foster Harman, and the program was on Litterbugs. A film "Money to Burn" was presented. Cathy Jo Laroe was in charge of the recreation, and refreshments were served by Johnny Zachry, Ralph Frost, Lavon Harman, and Greg Hodges.

The F.F.A. Parents-Son Banquet was held Monday night, March 9 in the school cafeteria. Officers for the coming year were installed, and achievement awards were presented. Entertainment was furnished by Marvin Caruthers and Gene McKinney. A delicious dinner was served, and everyone had an enjoyable evening. Mr. Lee Moore and the F.F.A. boys did a fine job of entertaining the parents.

Excitement is in the air at Happy this week with everybody trying to figure out a way to get off from their daily chores to make the trip to Austin. Congratulations to Coach Bill Tennison's Cowgirls for winning the Class B Regional Tournament held in Canyon! They beat Roosevelt Saturday morning in an exciting game 65-50, and then won over Cotton Center 57-51 to gain the championship. Named to the all-tournament team from Happy were Marcella Irlbeck, Martha Toles, and Alice Womack. From the rumors we can hear this early in the week there will be a good size crowd present in Austin to back the Cowgirls. Best of luck to them!

There was more excitement around the school Saturday morning, and this wasn't caused from basketball. A hot water heater for the cafeteria blew up, and water was running everywhere. It took about half the town's population to help clean it up.

Three more names have been added to the school board ballot this past week. Petitioned as candidates are Corliss Currie, Burl Sims, and Everett Culp. The names of the candidates who had tiled for the school board are Morlan McManigland H.E. Maynard for re-election, along with Cone Johnson.

Dan Rahlfs was an over-night guest in the home of Gary Culp Friday night.

Jolene Lee visited with Margaret Meeks on Tuesday, March 3.

Would have liked for some talent scouts to have been around last Thursday at the elementary school auditorium for the four one-act plays to see just how much director Carroll Killingsworth got out of our kids. It was so good for the students in the plays and such good entertainment for the people of Happy—some we'd like to have a lot more of.

Also deserving a good measure of credit, in addition to Mr. Killingsworth and the actors and actresses, are the production staff, which was as follows: student directors - Martha Toles, Angela Airhart, Jerry Don Danner, and Marvin Caruthers; stage managers - Glenn Maynard, Terry Wright, and Mike Starker; ushers - Ralph Frost, Bob Lee, Ricky McPherson, and Steve Vernon.

After the plays, everyone walked across the street to the cafeteria, where the freshmen class served all kinds of treats: homemade ice cream in every flavor you can imagine, delicious looking cakes and pies, coffee, and cokes. The mothers of the freshmen were in the kitchen working like pros. We hope they know, even if we didn't get around to each one to tell them so, that they and their willingness to work and help at anything they're asked to do is appreciated and noticed by everyone in Happy. To the play cast: you made your moms, dads, and friends very proud of you Thursday night—and we hope to have more of this sort of thing in the future.

Right now, I want to give most of the credit this week to Mrs. Myra Culp for helping me with the news this week. Was busy packing to take the girls home to see their grandparents last weekend. Appreciate Myra for taking over for me.

Last weekend, S/Sgt. and Mrs. Robert Gauthreaux and Patricia, from El Paso were visiting the H. H. Shipmans and other relatives. S/Sgt. Gauthreaux is being transferred to Carswell Air Force Base at Ft. Worth.

Mrs. Rosanel Payne took care of Mrs. Minnie Walberg while they were gone. Mrs. Fairy Payne of Tulia visited in the home of her son, John and family, while Rosanel was caring for Mrs. Walberg.

Robin Smith of Amarillo spent two days in Happy visiting in the Johnny Parker home.

On March 10, Tuesday night at 8:00, Donna Marshall, retiring Pres. of Jaycee-ettes of Canyon, and some other Jaycee-ettes met in the school cafeteria and began the organization of the Happy Jaycee-ettes. A good crowd attended and we will tell you more about this organization in the near future.

Mrs. Babe Walberg spent Wednesday in Amarillo with her daughter, Nancy Smith, where her other daughter, Jo Kendrick and friend, Daphna Brawley of Perryton, joined them for a visit.

Ruby Vise and Mary Shaw, Home Economics teacher of Kress, visited in Odessa last weekend with Reverend Bill Hogue and family.

Linda Jo Allison and Jimmy Pearson attended a banquet for Agronomy Students at Texas Tech last Saturday. Linda spent the weekend with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Prewitt, at Ralls. Jimmy joined them for Sunday dinner.

Linda will also attend a T.I. S.A. Senate Convention in Austin March 12. She will be one of seven students representing West Texas State University.

Dr. J. E. Green, head of the West Texas State University music department, left this week to attend a five-day music convention in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Graen, former president of the western division of the Music Educators National Conference, will be among 6-7,000 educators attending the biannual convention held March 12-17.

Green was president of the western division of the conference in California before assuming duties in Canyon as head of the WT music department.

Dramatics Initiation In Theatre

Eta Iota Cast of the Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics fraternity, held a formal initiation ceremony on the Branding Iron Theatre stage last Sunday.

Martin McDonald, cast director from Brownfield, presided at the initiation ceremony. He was assisted by Miss Lydia Miller of Midland, cast business manager; Miss Sarah Carr of

Dorm Phone Plan Still Under Study

No decision had been reached this week on a proposal to provide expanded telephone service in West Texas State University residence halls, according to Dr. Paige Carruth, dean of men.

A vote on the proposal by occupants of the residence halls resulted in a showing of approximately 60 per cent in favor, 40 per cent against.

Dr. Carruth said results of the poll have been turned over to President James P. Cornette and Comptroller Virgil Henson for study.

He said a meeting with representatives of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. would probably be held this week in an effort to draw up possible alternative proposals for improving telephone service in four residence halls instead of all of them.

Santa Fe, New Mexico, cast stage manager; and Ken Betzen of Hereford, inner guard.

Formal vows were given to Mary Lemmond of Friona; Kathy Wylie of Dallas, Lana Hard of Quanah; Ronnie Gabriel of Pampa; Don McPherson of Plainview; Rod Smith of San Diego, California; and Dariush 'Johnny' Boroumand of Isfahan, Iran.

The club colors of blue and gold were used in decorating the stage of the Branding Iron Theatre and the Intimate Theatre at the Fine Arts Building on the WTSU campus. Erin Wertenberger, technical director of the BIT, was in charge of decorations for the initiation.

Ex-students attending the program were Jenny Lynn Mas-sad and Mrs. Reva Roberts. Other members present were Harry Gilstrap, Miss Judy Buchanan and Ronny Parlo.

Following the ceremony, the new members were entertained by the cast at a breakfast given at the country cabin of Dr. and Mrs. Robert P. Jarrett. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Moore are sponsors for the group.

Dr. J. E. Green, head of the West Texas State University music department, conducted a clinic for the Guymon High School band last week.

Green worked with the concert band in preparation for the interscholastic league contest

"Numbers, Language of the World" is one of the projects made by two Canyon junior high school students and entered in the annual Texas-Panhandle Science Fair to be held in Amarillo April 3, 4 and 5. Patricia Waugh, Rosanna Matthis, Jim Cowart, Ted Minor, and Kyle Sunderman view the numbers exhibit. Sunderman and Cowart made the project for the fair.

7 Projects Entered In Annual Fair

Science endeavors have taken a lead in interest for 12 Canyon Junior High School students who have entered projects in the seventh annual Texas-Panhandle Science Fair next month in Amarillo.

Lawrence Brotherton, principal, said that the 12 students will enter seven projects in the junior division of the annual event.

The science fair will be held in the Commercial Exhibit Buildings in Amarillo April 3, 4 and 5.

Students and projects entered in the fair are Ricky Friemel, "The Path of Electricity"; Ted Minor, "The Magnet That Defied All Laws"; Mike Branum, Craig Parker and Phil Bonnington, "The Atom Smasher"; Ricky Warren, "Nutrition (rats)"; Rosanna Matthis and Patti Waugh, "The Chicken"; Jim Cowart and Kyle Sunderman, "Numbers, Language of the World"; and Alfred Bednorz and Barry Cox, "The Explosion of the Atom Bomb."

Weather Hits Construction

Bad weather put a crimp in Canyon building activities during February, according to E.A. Collier, city building inspector.

Only three permits were issued for a total of $14,050, Collier said.

Permits were issued to N.F. Cleavinger, 2107 1st Avenue, car wash, $9,000; Lawrence D. Hunnicutt, 2707 4th Avenue, tool shed, $50; and Duane Barrett, 1703 8th Avenue, moving residence, $5,000.

Collier said March building is off to a good start and should attain normal levels if weather permits.

Art Contest Judging Set For Mar. 20

A national art contest for the Hallmark Scholarship is being sponsored locally by the Canyon Federated Women's Clubs.

"To Strengthen the Arm of Liberty" is the theme for the annual scholarship competition which is open to senior students, who will graduate from high schools during 1964.

Canyon High School seniors should complete their paintings prior to March 20, when they will be judged locally. The Canyon Federation of Women's Clubs will sponsor the local winners in the state contest, April 1.

Scholarships totaling $2,350 will be awarded to the first three places in the national contest, which is approved by the national association for secondary school principals. The judging will be conducted on a local, state and national basis.

The contest theme may be used in paintings of historical subjects, portraits, still life or landscapes and may be done in oils, water colors, pastels, or a mixed media according to Mrs. W. E. Parker, spokesman.

Entries may be framed, without glass. The minimum size for entries is 11 x 14 with a maximum of 20 x 24, unframed. For complete information on the art contest, interested students should contact Mrs. Lorraine Harrison, art teacher at the high school, or Mrs. W. E. Parker, OL 5-3355.

Chamber Of Commerce Corner

It's a busy week starting today March 9th for the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. I hope that I can make all of the meetings, keep up with my job and help accomplish something for the greater development of this community.

We are meeting this morning with a firm who is interested in locating a manufacturing concern in Canyon that would employ 12 to 50 people. A labor survey has been asked for and notification of this has been in Canyon News, university paper (Prairie) and on KCAN radio station. It is hoped that many applications will come in to show this firm that there will be plenty of employees if the firm decides to locate here. Any firm giving additional employment here will help strengthen our businessmen and help enrollment at the University besides keep down unemployment in our city.

Another meeting is scheduled at the Trail Motel Restaurant at 12:00 noon, with Jerry LaGrone Funeral Chapel & Insurance Co., as chairman of a Chamber of Commerce Red Carpet Committee. This committee will welcome all new business dignitaries and lead caravan trips to neighboring towns in publicizing our town, University, park, museum, Buffalo Lake, and our 75th Anniversary celebration to be held this summer. Details of dress and functions of this committee will be worked out at this meeting.

Tuesday at 1:00 p.m. another meeting is scheduled for the Tourist Development Committee at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum office. Plans are underway for the promotion of a 5 state art contest and exhibit, which will offer prizes for the best representative painting of the area. It is expected that this contest will attract between 1500 and 2000 entries and will be an annual affair, growing larger each year, and will greatly benefit West Texas State University, Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, and give Canyon national publicity.

Another luncheon and conference is scheduled at the East Cafeteria of West Texas State University, Wednesday 12:00 noon where our education committee will meet with the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce education committee. The board of West Texas State University Ex-Students Association has been invited to meet with these two chamber committees. It is our wish that we can work for and with the University and help in any way to serve this great area of Texas.

Another luncheon is scheduled at the West Cafeteria Thursday, 12:00 noon, West Texas State University, for a joint meeting of all service clubs and the members of Canyon Chamber of Commerce and interested citizens, to hear an address by Mr. Harry W. Clark, Executive Director of the Texas Industrial Commission of Austin. Mr. Clark represents a nine member board which was expanded by the Texas legislature in 1959 from a five member board. Yes, Texas is rapidly becoming a great industrial state that compares favorably with any other section of the United States. We hope that you will give Mr. Clark an enthusiastic reception and I am sure it will be an inspiration to all that attend. Everyone pays for his own meal.

The finance committee is about to kick off their drive for more membership and a larger budget. We need your support for a growing Canyon and want all business firms as members and any individuals interested, to join the Chamber of Commerce and invest in your community giving more opportunities and a greater Canyon and Randall Co.

This will make a full week and then the board of directors and officers are planning to attend a LEADER'S WORKSHOP which has been set up by the Community Service Department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for March 18th from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. in Amarillo, at the Herring Hotel. The program will be an informal approach to the duties and responsibilities of Chamber presidents, officers, directors and committee chairmen. Chamber leaders from all over the Panhandle will attend this meeting and benefit from problems and opportunities from other towns and cities in our area.

Yes, we are working. We are interested in government, agriculture, distribution, transportation, production, education, social factors and publicity. The Chamber of Commerce is a busy agency. It has no time for idle gestures or activities to impress rather than to gain results. It is like the busy housewife who complained she had no time to go shopping. There were so many things that she had to buy at the stores that she had no time for shopping.

In the same way, the Chamber of Commerce has no time to concern itself with any interest or activities which are not productive and which do not serve a useful purpose for the community. Through the work and efforts of the Chamber of Commerce our community today has advanced with great strides over their former stagnation and we have high hopes for the future as we see our most important industrial establishments starting to embark on a program of decentralization which will bring industry and business to small town and cities throughout the country.

Yes, we will continue to work; so let's have everyone's support. I will close with this thought.

IF YOU THINK IT CAN'T BE DONE-TRY IT!
Charlie Donnell

OLSON BROTHERS QUARTET

Quartet Presents Concert

The Olson Brothers Quartet, popular recording artists from Seattle, Washington, will present a special concert of gospel songs and spirituals at Faith Chapel on Thursday evening, March 12.

The public is cordially invited to attend the program which will begin at 7:30 p.m. No admission will be charged.

Besides their many appearances on radio and television, they have appeared before capacity crowds in the Seattle Opera House, Queen Elizabeth in Vancouver, British Columbia; and in the auditoriums of Edmonton and Calgary, Alberta and in Memphis, Tennessee, where they played for a crowd of 8 thousand.

The quartet presented personal performances in coast to coast tours of the United States and Canada yearly and also have recorded three LP records on the Hymnophonic label.

Former WT Students In Army

Two former students of West Texas State University, 2nd Lt. Gary A. Green and Army Sgt. Gene D. Streun, are currently serving with the armed forces.

2nd Lt. Green, son of Garland A. Green of Channing, recently graduated from a ten-week ordnance officer basic course at the Ordnance Center, at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland. A graduate of Channing High School, Green graduated from West Texas State University where he was a member of Kappa Alpha Order fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Streun of Summerfield are parents of Army Sgt. Gene D. Streun who recently completed a two-week ground surveillance radar course. Streun is assigned to the 24th Infantry Division near Augsburg, Germany. He is a 1956 graduate of Hereford High School and attended West Texas State University prior to entering the Army in 1961.

Students Scheduled For Choral Concert

More than 200 vocalists will be featured at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 2, in a choral concert in the Canyon High School auditorium.

Participating will be the sixth grade choir under the direction of Mrs. W. R. Wilson and junior high and high school groups under the direction of Gene Murray.

Tickets are $1 for adults, 75 cents for students and 50 cents for children under 12 years old. The money will be used to finance a trip to the Tri-State Music Festival in Enid, Okla., in May for the high school mixed chorus.

"Although only the high school mixed chorus will make the trip, the other groups said they would like to help them raise the necessary money," said Murray.

County Road Sought By Petitioners

Randall County commissioners Monday instructed a jury of view to inspect the site of a road requested by a group of Precinct 4 residents.

As set forth in the petition signed by Anton Grotegut and 12 other landowners, the requested road would start in the center of Section 9, Block 1, TTRR Survey of Randall County, and extend 1-1/2 miles to junction with the City Lake Road.

The road site is approximately 8 miles northwest of Canyon.

An earlier petition for the road had been rejected by the jury of view on grounds the cost would be prohibitive.

In other action, commissioners heard Jim Wallace of Texas A&M Extension Service outline a four-day school for county road employees.

The training session would include classroom and on-the-job instruction in maintenance and repair of road equipment. Cost of the school would be $10 per person or a minimum of $150 for fewer than 15 persons.

The program was tabled for further study.

According to Murray, a tentative plan has been worked out for the program, but nothing will be finalized until after interscholastic League competition next week. Both junior high and high school groups will be in the competition.

Murray said a definite program for the concert will be announced in about two weeks.

Blackabys Move

The Bruce Blackaby family plans to move from Canyon at the close of the current school year.

Blackaby, former Ford dealer in Canyon, has purchased a similar agency in Portales, N.M., which he took over last week.

Mrs. Blackaby and her daughter, Janet, will join him in Portales when school is out. A son, Pat, will go into the Army for six months in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Burney Slack were in Canyon recently to visit with their son, Harrell, and his family.

The Harrell Slacks have two children, Harrell, Jr. and Sarah.
